RE: Bring to Your Appointment

Dear Client:

You must bring with you to the meeting:

1. All pay stubs for the last six months, plus this month's pay stubs. (For both spouses even if one spouse is not filing.)
2. Tax returns for this last year and one prior year. (Chapter 13 bring 4 years)
3. Bank statements for the last six months. (Again both spouses.)
4. Driver's license and social security card.
5. A copy of each bill. (the name, address and account number is the most important; an approximation of the amount due is sufficient);
6. All information on secured creditors such as a mortgages or car notes even if you plan to keep the property and maintain the payments.
7. A credit report; you are entitled to one free credit report per year. You may obtain and print the report online at www.annualcreditreport.com.
8. A complete summary of your average living expenses detailed for each expense.

Please check my website at www.danrobin.com for further information regarding bankruptcy.

Very truly yours,

DANIEL K. ROBIN, LTD.
